

Pat McGee Band, I Know

Tried to call you, must have been away
Had to write you, we didn't talk today
Must have seen you walking through my town
Have to hold you, love without a sound

I know I won't be there tomorrow, baby and now
I know I wasn't there today
These times are harder than they used to be and now
I'm fine if you're still thinking of me

I wish I'd found you, hiding right around me
Haven't seen you, things you said just yesterday
Seem to reason, reason with me suddenly
I've come to find, the reason love's in front of me

I know I won't be there tomorrow, baby and now
I know I wasn't there today
These times are harder than they used to be and now
I'm fine if you're still thinking of me

I'm comin' home now, probably won't remember me
If time were kinder you would've seen me yesterday
Sometimes I feel you, feel you there beneath me
Wrapped around you, you better come right into me

I know I won't be there tomorrow, baby and now
I know I wasn't there today
These times are harder than they used to be and now
I'm fine if you're still thinking of me
