

Pat McGee Band, Pride

It been said you should measure a man when he been kicked down.
Well this man knows the ways of life on the underground.
Now passing him by don you know won hurt his pride.
Now sympathy ain what he needs to heal his cries.
So load up on your intuition, it telling you right.
Don care about his situation, hel be eating good.

Chorus

Now things are looking up for him
Don forget me now old friend.
Got you through the hardest times.
I know youl be doin' fine.

It been said you should give your life for another man.
Well all right now your only chance we all understand.
Until youe walking in his shoes don be knocking?him down.
When youe looking over your shoulder hel be coming around.
So don put him though an interrogation, he got nothing?for you.
Let him walk on by in this so-call Nation, he just passing.
