

Pato Banton, Good Old Days

Bring back the days!
Well you see nowadays them have a lot of new craze.
But you see Pato Banton and Tippa Irie we love the good old days.
It's like this...

We sing say: T. I. P. P. A. a Tippa.
And P. A. T. O. a Pato let's go!
T. I. P. P. A. a Tippa.
And P. A. T. O. a Pato let's go!
Because...

Yes we come back again, on a trip down memory lane
we know things have to change, but give we back the good old days.
And we sing say:
We have to move with the times, can't let them leave us behind
we know things have to change, but we love the good old days.

And we sing say:
I can remember when dance used to be nice and people used to come a dance to rejoice and enjoy themselves when good tune a plays and listen to the singer them and the D. J.
Up north down south over east and west
I have to confess those days were the best man dress to impress every woman look fresh and we never come a dance to create no stress.
We just water pumpy cool and deadly.
Hold on pon we girl and settle steady.
Those days are precious to we
and will always have a place in our memory!

Bring back the days,
the good old days!

Follow me now!
I can remember when we were young friday night come we eat we cheese and bun put on we clothes fe go have some fun
but the youth them nowadays just a walk with gun.
Now some might say we live in a the past but as two entertainer Jah know we no lost the youth them nowadays really get we cross cause them don't want to work but them want to be boss.
Them really leave us amazed the way them a gwarn nowadays every night a pure gun shot a blaze Lord! give we back the
