

Pato Banton, Movin

Come with it rude boy
then me nar tell you man
rough!

When I was a boy mama used to say to me:
"Time a go get rough, yes it a go get so tough.
But hold your head up high, don't be afraid to try.
You can do what you wanna do."

That's why I'm movin', I'm movin' to the
I ain't gonna stop, 'til I reach my natural goal.
And if I first I don't succeed, I'll keep on trying again.

Lord we movin' each and everyday we have to keep improving.
Listen how the drum and the bass man grooving.
Straight to the top this ya band will be zooming.
Lord!

Some will try to hold you back
but they don't know just where it's at.
I'll keep on moving straight to the top
I'm never gonna stop until I drop.

First of all I wanna say greetings
to every ragamuffin queen and king.
A Mr. Banton pon de rhythm me nar ramp nar skin neither joke nar grin.
Along with the Reggae Revolution
we have a message for all youth man.
You can achieve anything that you want yes!
all you need is determination come!
Ambition and dedication
and when things get tough hold on strong.
And remember the words of your D. J. king:
life is a struggle but we never give in!

(We moving!) Lord we nar joke nar jive.
(Improving!) We coming with a positive vibe.
(We grooving!) The fittest of the fit will survive.
(We zooming!) A Reggae Revolution time!
