

Pato Banton, Situation Crazy

In this time the leaders of the world fight each other with sanctions and nuclear weapons.

There are mountains made of butter and grain
and yet people are starving.

Man has drained all resources from this God's living planet
and now he wants to live on the moon.

Situation crazy...

Don't turn your back on the problems
come together we can surely solve them
if we all unite then we can face the fight.

There's a black a white and a yellow man
and in this planet there's more than enough land
if we all unite then we can face the fight.

In this crazy crazy world surely one day we will learn so don't be afraid when the right time comes we've got to face the fight.

Situation crazy crazy crazy.

Oh Lord have mercy mercy mercy.

To every human being this is a special dedication
from the conscious loving M. C. by the name of Pato Banton. Gwarn!

From the school of life me get my education

I put it into words and then I chat in on a version.

I would chat it raggamuffin if I was a Jamaican heng peng teng fung if I was from Hong Kong.

But due to history and lot of sufferation

and the scattering of the african nation
slavery, liberation, independence and migration

I chat it like this cause I ended up in England.

Anyway let me get back to this little conversation

and tell you about this crazy crazy crazy... situation.

You must remember God's little children

come tomorrow they will ask the questions

if we all unite then we can face the fight.

Throw away prejudice and segregation

and live together as a multi-colored nation

if we all unite then we can face the fight.
