

Pato Banton, United We Stand

Oh brotherly love, that's all we want.
Oh sisterly love, that's all we need.

United we stand, divided we fall.
Unity is strength, together we'll build a human wall.

Whether you're black or whether your white
it doesn't matter who's wrong or right.
There is so much work to be done
and two heads sometimes are better than one.
So work together!
Yes we must pray together!
That's why we are struggling together!
I know we must forward together!

of all people living as one.
Black white red and yellow man underneath Jah Jah moon and sun.
