

Pato Banton, Ven A Mi Fiesta

Now this song is specially dedicated to the people of San Andrs Island and everyone in the Caribbean.

Nuff respect to all South American from Pato Banton and the Reggae Revolution.
Understand me no man?

Yes! Y los estoy invitando a toda la gente del mundo a venir a nuestra fiesta!

Woh oh ohoh! I wanna party now!
Woh oh ohoh! Ven a mi fiesta!

Life is filled with ups and downs
today you smile tomorrow you frown.
Today you win tomorrow you loose
you on cloud nine then the moody blues.
We all have wants and needs
but there's a price to pay to succeed.
Just like the wise man said
but the sweat of your work you will eat your bread.
Time to work, time to play.
Time to sing, a time to D. J.
To everybody in the world I say
time to dance all your troubles away.

Viva la, viva la, viva la fiesta!
Ven a mi, ven a mi, ven a mi fiesta!
Tenemos una fiesta mundial y todos estarn bailando y cantando y contentos la msica hace a la gente del mundo sentirse irie... Irie!
Wave your hands in the air party like you just don't care.
People everywhere
you all are welcome down here.
Life is filled with ups and downs
today you smile tomorrow you frown.
Today you win tomorrow you loose
you on cloud nine then the moody blues.
Time to work, time to play.
Time to sing, a time to D. J.
To everybody in the world I say
time to dance all your troubles away.
Party, party, party!
