

Patrice, Uncried

I love you
why can't love be enough?
you must hate me
for what I've done to our love uh uh uh uh uh uuh
what have I done to our love?
uh uh uh uh uh uuh
what have I done?
eventhough I smile so
my tears drop inside
in a black hole
not even fears fill this void how long does a tear take from my eye to the ground if not our lifetime
gotta turn myself upside down and

chorus
make it uncried (make it undone) I gotta make it uncried (make it undone)

verse
where are we heading
your left is my right
we're in a dead end
hopin' that I see the light I broke the purest heart like a virgin skin so innocent and free from sin

gotta turn myself in (make it undone) I gotta turn myself in
uh uh uh uh uh uuh

I gotta turn myself in yeah
and there ain't no place to run
and there ain't nowhere to run to.....
