

Patrick Doyle, Do The Hippogriff

Alright hogwarts, are you ready for some real music?

I said, are you ready?

Are you ready?

I gotta hear you... alright.

Come on, i wanna see your hands in the air.

We're going to teach you a brand new dance tonight.

So move your body

You gotta help us, hogwarts

Together we can do this thing

Are you ready?

Are you ready?

Move your body like a hairy troll

A learning to rock and roll

I spin around like a crazy elf

A dancing by himself

I boogie down like a unicorn

I brew a storm 'til the break of dawn

Put your hands in the air

Like an ogre just don't care

Chorus

Can you dance like a hippogriff

Mama ma mama ma mama ma

Flying off from the cliff

Mama ma mama ma mama ma

Swooping down to the ground

Mama ma mama ma mama ma

Wheel around and around and around

Mama ma mama ma mama ma

Oh!
