

Patrick Nuo, Runnin' Away

Im breaking it down now,
Nothing to hold on anymore,
my way was always crowded,
but I felt so all alone.
Look over my shoulder,
Leaving the past so far behind,
Its all gone up in smoke now,
but I cant stop to run away.
Runnin away from yesterday,
looking for places I cant stay.
Runnin away from yesterday,
looking for places I cant stay.
Im longing for a new tomorrow in my life,
I guess another day is gone in, in my life.
Im longing for a new tomorrow in my life.
I'm outta my way now
Still feel It chasing after me,
I tried to escape my past,
cause I cant carry in no more.
Runnin away from yesterday,
looking for places I cant stay.
Runnin away from yesterday,
looking for places I cant stay.
Im longing for a new tomorrow in my life,
I guess another day is gone in, in my life.
Im longing for a new tomorrow in my life,
in my life.
Oh
What they were asking, was much more than I could bare they want a picture of me, but I cant sell it anymore...
