

Patrick Wolf, Bloodbeat

I wake at dusk to go alone without a light
to the unknown
i want this night inside of me i want to feel
i want this speeding
i want that speeding

my blood beats black tonight!

no need for comfort
no need for light
i am hunting for secrets tonight Eat the sorrow lick the spark u h oh my blood beats dark

And here it comes
it comes for me
i want to run
i want to scream
Get in my car with both eyes closed full pedal down
And i am speeding!

my blood beats black tonight!

iam hunting down demons tonight Eat the terror lick the spark
uh oh my blood beats dark
