Patrick Wolf, Bloodbeat

I wake at dusk to go alone without a light to the unknown i want this night inside of me i want to feel i want this speeding i want that speeding my blood beats black tonight!

no need for comfort no need for light i am hunting for secrets tonight Eat the sorrow lick the spark u h oh my blood beats dark

And here it comes it comes for me i want to run i want to scream Get in my car with both eyes closed full pedal down And i am speeding!

no need for comfort no need for light iam hunting down demons tonight Eat the terror lick the spark uh oh my blood beats dark
