

Patryk Smolarek, Master!

don't tell them I am here
I am barely ...
I ... on this world they don't all care about me

but I can do what you want
I can be what you need
I can do everything for you
but I can do what you want
I can be what you need
I can do everything for you

you can be my Master!
I am gonna .. your feet
I do everything for you
I can fall down my knees
my master!

ah, what a feeling I try to be when you come irreplaceable you not me
but your skin feels like a some part of me I wanna be what you eat
I want hear what you hear
I can do everything for you

I can do what you want
I can be what you need
I can do everything for you

you can be my Master!
I am gonna .. your feet
I do everything for you
I can fall down my knees
my master!
