

Patsy Cline, I Fall To Pieces

I Fall to pieces
each time I see you again
I fall to pieces
how can I be just your friend You want me to act like we've never kissed you want me to forget pretend we'll never met but each time I see you, then I regret You walk by and I fall to pieces
I fall to pieces
each time someone speaks your name
I fall to pieces
Time only edge for the blame
You want me to find someone else to love someone to hold me true
the way you used to do.
But each time I go out with someone new
you walk by and I fall to pieces
you walk by and I fall to pieces
