

Patsy Cline, You're Stronger Than Me

Written by Hank Cochran and Jimmy Key

(As performed by Patsy Cline)

If you are sincere

When you say you don't care

That our love is just a memory

If the love that we knew

Won't bother you

Darlin', you're stronger than me

CHORUS:

For if still lovin' you means I'm weak

Then I'm weak

For I still fall apart when we speak

Or we meet

If the love that we knew

Won't bother you

Darlin you're stronger than me

If you can have fun

With some other one

With no thought of what used to be

If it's easy to say

That it's better this way

REPEAT CHORUS
