

Patti Austin, Ability To Swing

Everybody's thinking thinking pretty hard Everybody's thinkin' about singin' from the heart
If you want my opinion
it doesn't mean a thing
if you haven't got that ability to swing
The ability to swing Everybody workin' workin' pretty hard Everbody workin'
at singin' from the heart
If you want my opinion
it isn't worth a bean
if you haven't got that ability to swing
The ability to swing
Dreams, take them away Got it alone
Honey, Rome wasn't built in a day
But, now it's a ruin
The joke has worn thin
And it isn't cool to abuse the ability to swing Oh no!
Everbody' talking talkin' pretty loud Everbody lookin' to stand out from the crowd Gonna break it to you bucko
It isn't worth a bean
if you ain't in possession of the ability to swing
The ability to swing
Friends send them away
Go it alone honey, Rome wasn't built in a day
Now it's a ruin
The joke has worn thin
And it isn't cool to abuse
the ability to swing
SCAT...
But, each beat take me deeper under Each beat sends me more to sleep Heart melts ice and heart spells danger Don't hold your breath boy, 'cause it don't come cheap, no Everybody lookin' lookin' pretty hard Everybody lookin' for a meaning in my art Gonna give it to you straight boy
The ability to swing
Yeah, the ability to swing
The ability to swing
The ability, the ability
The ability to swing
The ability to swing
The ability to swing
Gonna give it to you straight Boy, it isn't worth a bean
if you haven't got that ability to swing
The ability to swing
The ability to swing
The ability to swing

Oooh
The ability to swing
The ability to swing
