

Patti LaBelle, If By Chance

If by chance,
We meet again,
I'll be sure to say I love you,
If by chance,
I see your face,
I'll be dazzled by the magic in your eyes,
They look so sweet,
If by chance we should happen to meet,
I'll run into your arms so safe and warm,
By your side I'll stand,
If by chance we meet again [x3],
I talk to you,
I wonder if the words would come out right,
If by chance,
I held you close,
I could drift away with the warmth of your embrace,
You were so sweet,
If By chance we should happen to meet,
We'll start all over again,
Me and my best friend,
A whole new life we'll plan,
If by chance we meet again,
If by chance we meet again.
