

Patti LaBelle, You Are My Solid Ground

When you're lying tenderly beside me,
And I feel your breath so soft against my cheek,
All my fears just disappear in darkness,
And I know for sure,
I could never leave,
You are the strength that I've found to see,
You life me up when I'm down-loving me,
When I never thought,
That I'd feel my heart come around,
You are my solid ground,
I don't need a fairy tale to save me,
I've got all the magic I need in your arms,
And I won't even fly away in madness,
I'll stay close enough to always feel your warmth,
You are the strength that I've found to see,
You lifted me up when I'm down-loving me,
When I never thought that I'd feel my heart come around,
You are my solid ground,
I'm...so in love with you,
You're everything faithful and true,
I know I could touch every star,
When you're lifting me and I'm right there where you are,
You are the strength, that I've found to see,
You life me up when I'm down...loving me,
When I never thought, that I'd feel my heart come around,
You are my solid ground, you are my solid ground.
