

Patty Loveless, God Will

Who keeps on trusting you
When you been cheating
Spending your nights on the town
Who keeps on saying
That she still wants you
When you're through running around
Who keeps on loving you
When you been lying
Saying things that ain't what they seem

Well, God does, but I don't
God will, but I won't
And that's the difference
Between God and me

God does, but I don't
God will, but I won't
And that's the difference
Between God and me

So who says she'll forgive you
Says that she'll miss you
And dream of your sweet memory

Well, God does, but I don't
God will, but I won't
And that's the difference
Between God and me

God does, but I don't
God will, but I won't
And that's the difference
Between God and me

God does, but I don't
God will, but I won't
And that's the difference
Between God and me
