

Patty Loveless, Jealous Bone

Somewhere deep down inside of my heart
Makes me feel things that tear me apart
Got a jealous bone
Got a jealous bone

Ever since you walked into my life
Can't bear to see you out of my sight
Got a jealous bone
Got a jealous bone

And I know I'm gonna run you off
If I don't learn to let you go
But, oh, you make me lose control
I was born with a jealous bone

See heads turn when you walk in the room
I know what they're thinking, 'cause I'm thinking it too
Got a jealous bone
Got a jealous bone

I feel blood pound all through my veins
Every last part of me is calling your name
Got a jealous bone
Got a jealous bone (jealous bone)

And I know I'm gonna run you off
If I don't learn to let you go
But, oh, you make me lose control
I was born with a jealous bone

Jealous bone (jealous bone)
Jealous bone
Jealous bone, got a jealous bone

Got to have you, baby, all to myself
Can't stand the thought of you with anyone else
Got a jealous bone
Jealous bone (jealous bone)

Jealous bone, got a jealous bone (jealous bone)
Jealous bone, got a jealous bone (jealous bone)
Jealous bone, got a jealous bone
