

Paul Alan, Carry Me

Carry Me
Hardin/Alan

say you'll hold me ever near Emanuel
I feel you and I know that I am not alone
When the tide is angry let the billows roll
I know that there is peace just beyond the storm

And if the road is long
You will carry me
And all my strength is gone
You will carry me
I will lift my hands
You will carry me
Like the child I am
You will carry me

And if tomorrow brings a bitter yesterday
I'll hold on and believe in the sweet reality
Of love and hope and faith that come what may
I know that you'll be here and holding on to me

Lay me down in a daffodil field where the still waters flow
Set my eyes on the horizon and the picture of home
Sail with me miles over even my highest hopes
Cause where ever you are- that's where I want to go
