

Paul Gilbert, I'm Not Afraid Of The Police

I'm not afraid of the police today
They'll never catch me now
I'm celebrating my release today
They finally let me out
I've become real good at pretending I've changed
But my heart is full of heavy metal rage
Yeah, yeah

I'm not afraid, I'm not afraid
I'm not afraid of the police today
I'm not afraid, I'm not afraid
I'm not afraid of the police
Today

I'm not afraid of the police today
I know the way they are
And when they're lookin' for their keys today
They'll find I stole their car
It's a plan I made while sittin' in the cage
'Cause my heart is full of heavy metal rage
Yeah, yeah

I'm not afraid, I'm not afraid
I'm not afraid of the police today
I'm not afraid, I'm not afraid
I'm not afraid of the police
Today

I'm not afraid of you
I'm not afraid of broken glass
Don't tell me what to do
'Cause then I'll have to kick your ass

I'm not afraid of the police today
I'm not afraid of the police today

I've become real good at pretending I've changed
But my heart is full of heavy metal rage

I'm not afraid, I'm not afraid
I'm not afraid of the police today
I'm not afraid, I'm not afraid
I'm not afraid of the police
Today
