DON'T TAKE IT SO HARD

Paul Revere and The Raiders

I've tried to let you down so easy

I'd like to still be just a friend

We shared such memories together

But all good things come to an end

You should not take it so hard

You should not take it so hard

You should not take it so hard

You should not take it so hard

You should not take it so hard

You should not take it so hard

You wonder when you are going to see me

I might just pass this way again

Until then don't you wait up for me

Cause now I'm getting in the wind

Don't you remember what I told you from the start

When people fall in love too much

It can cause a broken heart that won't mend easy

But if you just wait sometime

I may come walking to you in the sunshine
