

Paul Stanley, Tonight You Belong To Me

In a dream,
A long time ago,
We fell in love,
But what did we know,
Years seemed to pass,
As time took its toll,
Your here at last,
So why must you go,
But tonight You belong to me,
Yeah,
Yes tonight, you belong, to me.

I know your leaving,
Going away,
And i'm going out of my head
So go on and leave me what can I say
You dont hear a word that i've said

But tonight, you belong to me,
Yeah tonight, you belong, to me

(You belong...
You Belong...)

Well dont say I love ya, baby,
Love is in sorrow and pain,
I hope and pray, this never happens again

Well go one, and leave me
All I can say,
Baby I know, You will be sorry some day,

But tonight, you belong, to me
Ohhh tonight, you belong, to me

(You belong...)

Ohhh tonight, you belong, to me
yeah, to night, you belong, to me
tonight, you belong to me
Tonight, you belong, to me.
