

Paula, Sweetie

Ah, ah, ah. Sweetie
Take your things and leave the city
Please don't beg me , please don't cry
No more drama in my life

When you're down , when you cry and you're loosing your mind
'Cause a boy that you like doesn't treat you so fine
Show him, Baby I can live without you know, oh yeah...

Honey, boys have their toys, they are making some noise
You can play your game, but without me, what a shame
It's the end, our love is burning, ah

Tell him, oh come on, come on
Tell him, go and close the door
It's my choice, our love is falling down

I don't wanna hear your lies, it happened too many times
I don't wanna feel the pain, that you're making me, oh yeah...
I don't wanna see you in my pretty house

Ah, ah, ah. Sweetie
Take your things and leave the city
Please don't beg me , please don't cry
No more drama in my life

Come here dude, don't be rude, try to walk in my shoes
I am glad you're my past , our love couldn't last
Boy you know, you can only live for fun

If you think you can win, it's your risk, you can dream
I just know what I need , baby you're not for me
I'm sick of you and I'm leaving you from now

Tell him, oh come on, come on
Tell him, go and close the door
It's my choice, our love is falling down

I don't wanna hear your lies, it happened too many times
I don't wanna feel the pain, that you're making me, oh yeah...
I don't wanna see you in my pretty house

Ah, ah, ah. Sweetie
