

Paulina Lenda, Wolf Girl

Mother was a wolf
And a black gulf kill her siblings
And the weakness father was very smart
But from the start
Even he couldn't help with this sickness

She's still trembling alone
Through this unknown
And she's growing older
There's no time to regret
Faster instead
Initiation is going further
She's still trembling alone
Through this unknown
Initiation is going colder
There's no other choice
Just woods and (?)
If she want to avoid self-murder
Wolf girl

There's nothing that you could ever know
(?)
She still obey herself
Doesn't need help
If she does for sure call her pack
She's still trembling alone
Through this unknown
Wild and free and open mind
Breathing since she was born
Unfaithful and thorn
Find her in the forest society crowded
For her
