

Peach, Velvet

Last night you talked like you were far away,
But now it looks as though you're here to stay.

Hey, hey, hey...
But now my eyes are open,
So just tell me what you want from me.
But now my eyes are open,
So just tell me what you want from me.

Let me down gently, let me down today.
Or trick me on, for once and always... Always!
Anyways, just say

And now my eyes are open,
So just tell me what you want from me.
But now my eyes are open,
So just tell me what you want from me.

Last night you talked like you were far away,
But now it looks as though you're here to stay.

Hey, hey, hey...
But now my eyes are open,
So just tell me what you want from me.
But now my eyes are open,
So just tell me what you want from me.
Want from me.
