

Peaches, Tombstone, Baby

Tombstone, baby, and I'm ready to roll highspeed lovin' and I never get old necessary kisses when it's cold outside
come on baby, come on baby
Buried alive

Coffee wit' your cream and I'm stirrin' it up Half my french toast, baby gimme some burn
if you wanna get up, then I say tough luck that's the only way we wake the morning abroad

Yeah yeah yeah yeah
Yeah yeah yeah yeah
Yeah yeah yeah yeah
Yeah yeah yeah yeah

necessary kisses when it's cold outside
come on baby, come on baby
buried alive

Coffee wit' your cream and I'm stirrin' it up Half my french toast, baby gimme some boob
if you wanna get up then I say tough luck
that's the only way we make the morning erupt
