Pearl Jam, Love You, Hate You

Doctor said I,I'd be alright Oh,everything that I believed,it wasn't true I found it out when I got close to you I thought you were different,like a dream Things they ain't never what they seem,whoa Thought I could trust you with my soul But you can't do that anymore The doctor said I'd be alright,but I still feel blue The doctor said I'd be alright,but I still feel blue The doctor said I'd be alright,but I still love you Love you,hate you... Love you,want you,hate you... Ah,yeah...

I'm different Me myself,I'm different than all the rest I can only speak for myself,but people can trust me
