

Pearl Jam, Waiting For Stevie

Pearl Jam prezentuje utwór "Waiting For Stevie" z płyty "Dark Matter" (premiera 19 kwietnia 2024 r.)

You can be loved by everyone
And not feel, not feel love
You can be told by everyone
And not hear a word from above

Swallowed up by the sound
Cutting holes in the clouds
Finds herself in the song
Hears her own voice rising

You can be loved by everyone
And still not feel, not feel love
You can relate, but still can't stop
Or conquer the fear you are what you're not
Would have to take an act of faith
To find relief and escape the blame

Words follow her down
Needs to shake 'em off now
This godforsaken town
Don't deserve her anyhow

Calling on a messenger
Awaiting on a face
That she could trust, a messenger
For her love, her love

Oh, you can be loved by everyone
And not feel, feel love
You can be told to not give up
And still not hear a word from above
You can't take or give what you got Dissolve the fear you are what you're not
No, you can be loved by everyone
And not feel, feel love

You can be loved
You, you can be loved
You, you can be loved
You, you can be loved
You

Times I feel something, at times I feel there are lies
Be mighty, be humble, be mighty humble
