

Pedestrian, Paper Thin

Paper thin we are against this landscape Petrified against the skin up my sleeve
In my dreams I pursue the sleep I've wasted Now I'm the ordinary one I remember you, you were all I had You were all I needed
I would be the one to wait until the day's passed when given opportunity, I fail to see but I will be careful, not to hurt my friends and I'll be sure not to miss again and everyone, I won't stop until I'm through and all I've ever asked for was made to fail with all my good intention drawn from me, I make my will to carry on I will be fine
I will put all of this to rest
I will be the best I can I REST MY CASE, I REST MY CASE, LOVE
I'm better off with you
