

Pedro The Lion, Promise

i'll take something to believe something with long sleeves cause it's unpredictable. now Jesus said He'd fill my needs but my heart still bleeds He's just not physical but why can't i see?

if i look up and the sky's not there
is there any reason that i should be scared?
when a promise is a promise, i know now we've established lack of sight, maybe vision is the right word, for what i need

cause i can't see with human eyes, Lord knows i've tried to follow where He leads me why can't i see?

is there any reason that i should be scared?

for what i've seen so far i can't believe my eyes and what a nice surprise

is there any reason that i should be scared?

is there any reason that i should be scared?
