

Pedro The Lion, The Longer I Lay Here

you're up with the sunrise and down when the work's been done with excellence industry dilliegence naturally

i would like to be you just for a few habit forming years laziness cuts me like fine cutlery i need a miracle someone to help me help myself sweet jesus i need you forgive me this sin not hookers or heroin gambling or gin it sounds so ridiculous but i just can't lick this
