

Pegboy, Still Uneasy

The other day I said to you
I know what you want to do
I could never sit around
While youre feeling down
And I could never compromise
My situation lies
And I would never feel the same
Would you be the blame?
Would you leave me
Still uneasy
Locked inside of
Torn in spite of
I dont want to, I dont want to know
Sometimes when youre all alone
Hiding what youre thinking of
I could never sit around
While youre feeling down
I could never see my self
Chasing something else
I would never get away
Would you feel the same?
Would you leave me
Still uneasy
Trapped inside of
Torn in spite of
I dont want to, I dont want to know
Sometimes when Im all alone
Feeling what youre thinking of
And I could never sit around
Chained to frozen ground
I could never see my self
Playing for something else
And I could never walk away
Would you feel the same?
Would you leave me
Still uneasy
Trapped inside of
Torn in spite of
I dont want to, I dont want to know
