

Peking Duk, Honest ft. Slayyyter

Running and running
The mountains
The raindrops
I follow
I follow
The way alone
Together
The oceans are talking
The thunder
The calling
The sweat keeps on pouring
On down

And I wanna be honest
I want ya
Even though I know you're bad for me
And I wait the longest Just to touch ya You're the trouble but ur where I wanna be

One and two we go we're higher than the sun
we fly
we grow
the river may be wild but we we flow imagining that we can be together
