

Pencilcase, Crashday

I feel bad times inside!
I don't know what I
Can expect from life!
I fight an endless battle!
But this may be my chance, to steer myself back on track here I wanna take control!
2X: No regrets and no distress
today I'll fly and then I'll crash
This fast lane is my way
I'm like a train on an endless journey..
Another place, another time another crashday:
That`s where I find
Somethin' of my mind
Somethin' I can't hide
another place, another time another crashday:
That`s where I find
Somethin' of my mind
Somethin' of myself
I'll take control today
'cause I don't want to persist in old views and I will change my habit!
I am on the dark side and I know I will find the light that' ll push away my darkness
2X: No regrets and no distress
today I'll fly and then I'll crash
This fast lane is my way
I'm like a train on an endless journey..
another place, another time another crashday:
That`s where I find
Somethin' of my mind
Somethin' I can't hide
another place, another time another crashday:
That`s where I find
Somethin' of my mind
Somethin' of myself
you'll see me burnin' on my way...my final way on that crashDAY
another place another time another crashday
another place, another time another crashday:
That`s where I find
Somethin' of my mind
Somethin' I can't hide
another place, another time another crashday:
That`s where I find Somethin'
of my mind
of my mind
of my mind
Somethin' I can' t hide!
