Pendulum, Violet Hill

Was a long and dark December From the rooftops I remember There was snow White snow

Clearly I remember From the windows they were watching While we froze down below

When the future's architectured By a carnival of idiots on show You'd better lie low

If you love me Won't you let me know?

Was a long and dark December From the rooftops I remember There was snow (the was snow) White snow (white snow)

Clearly I remember From the windows they were watching While we froze down below

When the future's architectured By a carnival of idiots on show You'd better lie low

If you love me Won't you let me know?

Was a long and dark December When the banks became cathedrals And the fog (and the fog) Became God (became God)

Priests clutched onto bibles And went out to fit their rifles And the cross (and the cross) Was held aloft (was held aloft)

Bury me in honour When I'm dead and hit the ground A love back home unfolds

If you love me Won't you let me know?

I don't want to be a soldier With the captain of some sinking ship With snow (with snow) Far below (far below)

So if you love me Why'd you let me go?

I took my love down to violet hill There we sat in snow All that time she was silent still

So if you love me Won't you let me know?

If you love me, Won't you let me know?
