

Pennywise, Side One

when you're alone
you're on your own this world is no place for the weak we've got to find ourselves in unity cause strength in numbers is what we seek togetherness friendship is best no one can stop us when we all work as one when problems come we've already won cause we know whose side we're on come together and fight together unite together as one
come together and fight together fight forever till we have one camaraderie amity it's good to know whose side you're on conviviality homogeneity together we cant go wrong
