

Pennywise, Slowdown

Responsibility is a foreign word to me it's time to buckle down time to stand your ground set any way of life for which you abide by while not always the ways you would take set them before you make a mistake open your eyes and see

I've got too much fun ahead of me
I've got too much fun ahead of me

reality doesn't, it doesn't refer to me the real worlds no big deal what's real is what you feel so tell me now buddy: what are you gonna do?
Will you take advice from me?
Will you be who you wanna be?
You could be going down along ways before me

I've got too much fun ahead of me
I've got too much fun ahead of me

reality doesn't, it doesn't refer to me the real worlds no big deal, what's real is what you feel
so tell me now buddy: what are you gonna do?
Will you take advice from me?
Will you be who you wanna be?

I've got too much fun ahead of me
I've got too much fun ahead of me
