

Pennywise, Unknown Road

"...two roads diverged in a wood, and i - i took the one less traveled by, and that has made all the difference." r. frost

So you're currently content with your surroundings
You possess a vague sense of accomplishment Did you give all you had to give or did you give conservative Do you think that all the years that passed you by we're all well spent Pictures of everyday life spark memories
And certain things pull triggers in your mind What would be different now if you were there than here.
What passages, what fantasies lie just beyond the unknown road
Do you know, the miracles that could be found they're waiting down the unknown road, so it goes A few more cornerstones that could be yours Ever get the thought you were mistaken?
Ever think about the stones you've left un-turned? More chances slip away with every passing day, suffering with cold You're so afraid you might get burned.
And wondering can take it's toll yeah
And wondering you can rack your skull And wondering can send your imagination up a tree Wondering what fantasies lie just
beyond the unknown road
Time is right now of the essence Time is right to learn your lessons Time is all that you have left things you've contemplated the unknown road is one
