

Pentatonix, A Little Space (ft. ATEEZ)

i love you in a mess up way
it makes difficult to find the worlds to say There's not a better time or place

i think, i think i need a little space
Between your name and my lips I need a space
I send your calls and your kisses outer space
I know I wanted a taste but my senses came back
Now I know I'ma need a little space
You put too much and too little on my plate
Don't wanna be somebody you're gonna hate
I need your key to my place
We were movin' too fast
Now I know I'ma need a little space

I'ma need a little I'ma need a little
We were moving too fast
Now I know I'ma need a little

i love you're heavy on my conscience and tehre's nobody sleeping on your pillwo side if you gonna be my constant you've got a lot to figure out and so do i

i love you in a mess up way
it makes difficult to find the worlds to say
There's not a better time or place

i think, i think i need a little space
Between your name and my lips I need a space
I send your calls and your kisses outer space
I know I wanted a taste but my senses came back
Now I know I'ma need a little space
You put too much and too little on my plate
Don't wanna be somebody you're gonna hate
I need your key to my place
We were movin' too fast
Now I know I'ma need a little space

I'ma need a little I'ma need a little
We were moving too fast
Now I know I'ma need a little
