

Pepper, Too Much

[verse 1:] How many times will they do it there taking what's mine and they tell me that I blew it. What can you do; who me, yes you. When bitches get scandeless and full of voodoo. Catching my breath term I use when the world gives up on me. Can you love or not? The truth finds all of us eventually [verse 2:] I don't mind taking lives I find. They all shine in my pocket at night. You wonder why you're always alone. you never fit in you never could find a home, and I don't need to second guess why, eaten by the anger and it makes it so hard to....

[chorus:] Love to love to love ya..oooh ooh

[CHORUS]

[bridge:] ...and please don't let me go, and please don't tell me no (who me yes you)
