

Permanent Me, Ambient And Grey

These kids, they have nowhere else to go so they come to us but soon we will be leaving on our own it's a desperate route

tell the neighbors on me
whispers in the room
be careful not to find me I'll be coming soon

now I sit by your side
seeing my name in lights
wondering why
wonder why I say whoah

all night I stare up at the sky to fill the void
what a sad sight when I come crashing down with all my boys

and now I sit by your side
wondering why I say whoah to leave this alone would be criminal to leave you alone would be criminal to leave, to leave

wondering why
