

Pernille Vallentin, Kiss Your Demons Away

Wont face the world that surrounds us
Guess you're no longer tryin.
Come lay down beside me, hand me your fears

Wrap me in yellow skies

I'm lost in you, let me dive in to
Just wanna make you happy.

If your sun, fades away
I'll do all just to make it shine
Precious one, it's okay
I'll be here to kiss your demons away
(I'll be there to kiss your demons away)

Lalalalalalalalla

I'll kiss your demons away

Lalalalalala

Over suburban dark clouds
On a cosmic plained we're flying
Down worry my baby I'll take you there, (I'll take you there)
Wrap me in yellow skies
Tonight's the night we'll fly

If your sun, fades away
I'll do all just to make it shine
Precious one, it's okay
I'll be here to kiss your demons away

If your sun fades away
I'll do all just to make it shine
Precious one it's okay
I'll be there to kiss your demons away

Dadadadadada

I'll be there to kiss your demons away

Lalalala

Yeah yeah yeah

Uh away
Ey ey ey

Over suburban dark clouds,
Let me wrap you in yellow
