

Perry Blake, The End Of The Affair

If it's the end of the affair
Then it's the end of the affair
And only time will let us know
Only time will let us know
Two hearts for the price of one
Truth will be the death of us
And only time will let it show
And no one else will ever know

That i loved you well
I loved you well
The many times when we laughed
Were the times i could cry

Amongst all at the stinking shit
Always thought i'd keep my grip
Only time has let me knew
That i can never let you go

I loved you well
I loved you well
The many times when we laughed
Were the times i could cry

If it's the end of the affair
Then it's the end of the affair
