

Perry Como, Do You Remember Me

Do you remember me,
As I remember you?
I know, many years have passed,
Yet I still can't forget the love we shared.

Do you ever regret the day,
You turned and walked away?
Leaving a dream behind,
One I never could find again.

Life went on without you,
I willed it from my mind!
But still the memory lingers in my heart,
Of how we parted.

Do you remember why,
You had to say good-bye?
Do you every now and then,
Breathe a sigh, shed a tear, for me,
Wishing we were together, still in love,
The way that we used to be!

Do you remember me,
Holding you tenderly?
Do you, every now and then,
Breathe a sigh, shed a tear, for me,
Wishing we were together, still in love,
The way that we used to be!
