

Perry Como, Everytime I Meet You

Everytime I meet you, I meet you for the first time just as though we had never had met before Everytime I kiss you, I kiss you for the first time and my happy heart keeps begging you for more!

Everytime you thrill me, you thrill me for the first time the moment is grand and the feeling is so brand new Everytime you leave me, won't you take this thought along with you I've fallen in love for the first and the last time too!

< instrumental break >

Everytime you leave me, won't you take this thought along with you I've fallen in love for the first and the last time too!
