

Perry Como, Forever

Come put your hand in mine from this time forever
I want you close to me,
let it be forever
This world is such a changing game, restless and insane Still I know the love we feel, will always be the same!

They say that all things pass, nothin' lasts forever
But they could never know, a world we've found together

So, darling, walk with me, through the years
through the laughter, and the tears
the love we share, will be forever!

&lt; instrumental break &gt;

So, darling, walk with me, through the years
through the laughter, and the tears
the love we share, will last forever!
