

Perry Como, Give Me Your Hand

Give me your hand let me be ever near and let us wonder together through the years.
Give me your fate, I vow that I'll be true
no doubt must ever touch my love for you!
Give me your heart to cherish tenderly,
no greater gift than this could ever be.
Give me your love and make my life divine

God make this day, at last your love is mine!
&lt; instrumental bridge &gt;
Give me your love and make my life divine
God make this day . . .
at last your love is mine!
