

Perry Como, What's One More Time?

What's one more time?
Hold me like you'll never let me go whisper words of love so soft an' low
it really doesn't matter anymore
once I fell for them so many times before!

What's one more time?
Even if they're only words to you they fool me just the way they always do it doesn't seem to stop me anymore
I've been down this road so many times before!
What's one more time?

Even though I know how it will end
still I give in every time
If I ever thought I could resist
why your tender kiss just changed my mind

What's one more time?

< instrumental break >

What's one more time?
Lay down here beside me one more time
maybe I'm a fool but I don't mind
it really doesn't matter anymore
once I fell for them so many times before!
What's one more time?

What's one more time?

What's one more time?
